$15.35 per cwt., received for two loads of 1381-lb beaver from Audrain county, Mo. These were fed by A. B. Fennewald of the above county on a ration of corn, cottonseed cake and alfalfa. The cattle were bought on the St. Louis market as feeders the first of the year and were started in feed the first of February. Gains were good, but it is needless to say the cattle lost money. — St. Louis Live Stock Reporter.

W. D. Masap of Audrain county, Mo., methoded a choice load of ewe and wether lambs on the St. Louis Market Tuesday at $11.75 per cwt. which price was the top of the market.

The best price paid here for lambs by packers yesterday was $11.50. Mr. Mason had in 118 head, that averaged 60 lbs. — Live Stock Reporter.
